Senior Prom Heads List Of Graduation Activities

Seniors Participate In Services May 31

Baccalaureate services for the seniors will be in the main auditorium, Sunday, May 31, at 3:00.

Following the processional hymn, God of Our Fathers, Rev. Paul Shults from 43rd Avenue Presbyterian Church will give the invocation. The A Cappella Choir will sing the anthem, Send For Thy Spirit. Rev. James Coriden from St. Marks Church will give the Baccalaureate address. Rev. Carl Bosse from Grace Methodist Church will give the benediction, which will be followed by the recessional hymn Lean On O King Eternal.

Commencement

On June 3, at 8:00 p.m. the seniors will walk down the aisles of Memorial Auditorium to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."

Commencement exercises will begin with the invocation given by the senior class president, Tom Linger. Shirley Zivich, valedictorian, will speak on giving one's best. Tira Yermak, salutatorian, will speak on how to improve the image of teen-agers. The Girls' Chorus will sing two selections under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Lowenberg. Loretta Starsynski will sing a solo at the exercises.

Pete Vasil will close the ceremony with the benediction. Then the graduated seniors will exit to "Pomp and Chivalry."

Class Of '64 Awaits Senior Prom Tonight

Tonight 178 couples will enjoy the long awaited festivities of the Senior Prom in the Crystal Ballroom of the Hotel Gary from 8:30 to 11:30.

Leading the grand march will be the senior class president, Tom Linger, and his date, Joanie Valenti. The couples will dance to the music of Renald Young's band.

The prom is the result of many hours of planning and preparation by many students under the direction of Coach Don Polizotto. Pete Vasil is general chairman and Pat Angerski is secretary of the prom committee.

Raising the needed funds was the job of Rick Hurey, Bob Kusmiercyk, Shirley Zivich, Juanita Millan, Pat Naidoff and Nancy Pinkerton.

Serving on the program committee were Lorraine Sackman, Lynn Drozda, Terry Evans, Sandy Smock, Jeff Torreson and Donna Staloway.

Prom couple pictures to be taken by Mr. George Strimbu's staff were arranged by Gloria Chiabai and Judy Redmond.

Martha Ward, Gary Kinnis and Katy Avirett drew up rules and regulations.

Securing the band was the job of Ken Sendre, Janice Kos, Carol Wood and Dan Sharp. The courtesy committee consisted of Kathy Campbell, Connie Zink, Jeff Torreson, Mary Jo Boylan and Sue Vorwald.

The new look at the prom will be the grand march beginning at 11:15. Because the favors are so big and so attractive the prom couples will receive them during the grand march instead of earlier in the evening.

At 11:30 the couples will leave for the post prom party at Teibel's Restaurant. Mr. Craig Greene, hypnotist, and the Carmen Tiro Band will entertain the group. The PTA is sponsoring the party under the chairmanship of Mrs. Howard Cook.

Honor Society Inducts 35 Eligible Students During Traditional Candlelight Ceremony

Twenty-two juniors and thirteen seniors were inducted into the Senior Honor Society with a traditional candlelight ceremony during a last-period assembly in the main auditorium yesterday.

Various Universities Award Scholarships To Worthy Seniors

Scholarships from several different universities have been awarded to many seniors. These schools include the Illinois Institute of Technology, Indiana, Oklahoma, Valparaiso, Notre Dame, DePauw and Oberlin Universities.

Richard Oracheff who received a scholarship from the Jewel Tea Company, Control Corporation of America and an honorary scholarship from Illinois Institute of Technology was also a National Merit finalist. Scholarships to Indiana University have been won by Steve Bartosh, a renewable one; Linda Orlich, a remission fee and Tira Yermack, a special scholarship.

Roger Taylor was the recipient of an athletic scholarship to Valparaiso University, and a special scholarship to Valparaiso University was awarded to Linda Anderson. Steve Kurowski received a scholarship to Notre Dame, and Shirley Zivich received a music scholarship to DePauw University. A scholarship to Oberlin University was won by Frank Panchak.

The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award went to Jean Jasper, Jean Kadish and Steve Bartosh received the Thom McAn Leadership Awards.

Teibel's Restaurant Scene Of Luncheon

"The Future Rests In Our Hands" will be the theme of the annual Senior Luncheon which will be next Friday afternoon at Teibel's Restaurant. Tickets for the affair are $4.75 and may be purchased in the auditorium alcove.

The luncheon will have a rose and ivory color scheme. Entertainment will be provided by Rick Laster, John Rosco and Bill Namovich.

All seniors not attending the luncheon must remain in school the whole day. Those going to the luncheon will go by bus. Students will not be permitted to drive to the restaurant and no smoking will be allowed in the buses or in the restaurant.

Rick Laster is general chairman of the luncheon.

Senior Edition Distributed At Luncheon

The 1964 Senior Edition, in Retro-spect, will be distributed to the seniors at the Senior Luncheon.

Gee Gee Burcham was the editor. Contributions to this year's edition were made by Bonnie Kay Reid, Judy Seepers, Nancy Rektenwall, Karen Kusta, Linda Orlich, Sharon McQuaid, Martha Burches, Jan Felton, Mary Lynn Drozda and Michael Adlesich.

New SOS Fund - Save Our Seniors

As Commencement nears, seniors find not only their hearts becoming lighter, but also their wallets. Everyone seems to be bent on separating the poor graduates from his hard-earned pennies. Pity the poor unemployed student! Look at the figures:

Boys	Girls
Senior Luncheon$ 4.75	Senior Luncheon$ 4.75
Cap and Gown 3.50	Cap and Gown 3.50
Prom:	Prom:
Tux 12.00	Dress 30.00
Flowers 10.00	Boutonniere50
Bid and Post Prom 15.00	Hair 2.50
Pictures 5.00	Accessories 10.00
Gas and Extras 10.00	Total$62.75
Total$61.75

Staggering isn't it? Yet, these figures are modest and do not include any extras such as a new dress or suit for Baccalaureate, Commencement, and the Senior Luncheon, or graduation gifts, or open houses, or club banquets, or any one of a dozen things.

There are two solutions: a gigantic senior aid fund or a reduction either in the kinds of senior activities or the activities themselves. Our only suggestion is — juniors, start saving your money now!

Farewells And Thank Yous

Traditionally the end of a school year is a time for reminiscing, worrying about finals, enjoying senior activities, attending end-of-the-year club functions, and expressing gratitude. Because this is the last issue of the Philosopher, we would like to express our gratitude to all the people in and around school who have helped us put out fourteen issues.

A special thank-you is extended to our advisor, Mrs. Kathryn Welsh, and Mr. D. Torreson, principal, for all their help and encouragement. Our thank you also goes to the Photography Department, the office staff, the faculty, the club presidents and their advisors, and our advertisers for their cooperation.

To the student body, we express the hope that we have performed our function as the staff of a high school newspaper well and to some degree have informed and entertained you. Thank you for reading the Philosopher.

Irony Shared By All

BY SUE ANDREWS

What is Irony?

Irony is staying up late at night for weeks studying for a test and then finding out that you've studied the wrong chapters.

Irony is giving up a date to the dance with one boy because you're positive that he will ask you and then he doesn't.

Irony is skimping and saving for months to buy that certain dress and when you finally do buy it, it's out of style.

Irony is finally getting a big date with him. You look gorgeous in your beautiful red dress and he blushing hands you your lovely purple and pink flowers.

Irony is your mother finally saying that you can bleach your hair blonde for the summer, and then it turns green in the sun.

Irony is fighting over a seat next to him and when you gracefully sit down, the chair collapses.

After all this, don't feel as though the world has forsaken you just because you've fallen into a trap labeled "IRONY." After all, in their lifetime, everyone has his share of sadness, frustration, anguish, embarrassment and irony.

Most Seniors To Wear Blue

Probably the most important question now in the minds of every girl who is going to the Senior Prom tonight is, "Will there be another girl wearing my dress?"

Although there is, of course, no way to know whether or not you will see another dress exactly like yours, we have made an effort to give you a color preview of most of the dresses being worn tonight.

The list below was derived from the reply to a questionnaire which we sent to the six senior homerooms.

White, 24; pink, 20; yellow, 15; aqua, 10; blue, 25; green, 6; red, 1; black, 2; others, 4.

If this survey has made you entirely dissatisfied with the color of your dress, you still have several hours in which to run downtown and purchase a new one.

5½ DAYS LEFT FOR SENIORS

6 Students To Attend Journalism Seminars

Members of next year's Philosopher and Quill and Blade staffs will attend journalism institutes this summer. Jeanne Allman and Diane Firme will attend the Indiana High School Journalism Institute at Indiana University in Bloomington from July 12 until July 25.

Geometry X Student To Attend Seminar

"I was really excited when I found out that they had accepted me, because I love the Indiana University campus and I love geometry," said Janice Langan, sophomore. Janice is one of 40 students selected from 150 applicants, mostly juniors, to attend the Topology Institute at Indiana University in Bloomington from July 6 to July 13.

"Miss Leskow gave me a little booklet to study," she explained. Miss Olive Leskow is Janice's Geometry X teacher, and the "little booklet" was about topology, the study of geometric properties that do not change in spite of stretching or bending.

Janice has been in the accelerated math program since eighth grade and has made straight A's in Geometry X this year. A good student in other subjects as well, she won the freshman Latin Award last year and represented our school in the high school Achievement Tests sponsored by Indiana Univ.

She enjoys extracurricular activities and belongs to Olympians, GAA, Biology Club, Chess Club and concert band this year. Outside of school she is active in Senior Girl Scouts, Job's Daughters and her church choir.

Her future plans include college, probably I. U., and a major in either science or music. At this point she plays the organ, piano and saxophone.

When asked what she will like best about the Topology Institute this summer, Janice found it difficult to choose any one aspect. "I'm sure I'm going to enjoy every minute," she said, "even the homework!"

There is never a life without sadness,
There is never a heart free from pain:
If one seeks in this world for true solace,
He seeks it forever in vain.
So when to your heart comes the sorrow
Of losing some dear one you've known
'Tis the touch of God's sickle at harvest
Since He reaps in the fields He has sown.

THE GENERAL

Greetings everyone! It's the General back again to inform you on all of the latest happenings and there certainly are a great many of them.

Next to graduation, today is just about the busiest day of the year for seniors as everyone is preparing for the Senior Prom, which will take place this evening.

So many boys have been picking up their tuxedos that there was a bit of confusion at the last minute. In a slight mix-up, Roger Taylor got Tom Mazarro's tux and vice versa. Luckily, the mistake was discovered in time.

When Tom Szabo asked Sandy Thomas what kind of flowers she wanted for the Prom and she replied, "A nosegay," Tom couldn't understand why she was going to cover her face with flowers.

Pat Szczerba told her date, Tasos Anthony that she wanted a nosegay made of her favorite flowers, dandelions.

Jeanne Baker was quite upset when John Lincoln informed her that he was going to drive the truck to the Prom. John explained that they wouldn't be crowded because Ken Dowdy and Mariann Terzus, their doubles, were going to ride in the back of the truck.

The next big event on the calendar for seniors is the Senior Luncheon next week.

Greg Dimos is one senior who probably won't be able to attend because he'll still be trying to untie the knots holding him to his desk in Mr. Paul Pieroni's economics class.

Barb Lenart was very disappointed when she learned that she couldn't have a peanut butter and jelly sandwich to eat unless she brought it herself.

Last, but not least on the senior calendar, is graduation. Yes, this is certainly the most important day in the life of every senior.

Bonnie Kay Reid, one of the most punctual seniors, is leaving her house at five o'clock so that she will be on time for sure.

Bob Malinich is not going to forget and wear his basketball uniform instead of a cap and gown to Memorial Auditorium for commencement.

New Officers, High Scorers On Club Final Honored At Biology Club End-Of-Year Party

New officers and members who made the highest scores on the Biology Club final exam were honored at the end-of-the-year party Wednesday at the home of the new president, Lauren Baldea.

Other new officers are Marsha Bradon, vice-president; Sylvia Roszkowski, secretary-treasurer; Linda Holley, the assistant secretary-treasurer; Nancy Alexander, social chairman; and Cathy Zdobyak, publicity chairman.

Janice Langan, Linda Holley, and Sylvia Roszkowski received prizes for their high scores on the final, which was given at the May 6 Meeting.

The club has decided to help buy new planters for the biology room and to have a fund-raising drive before the Indiana Junior Academy of Science meeting October 31 in Indianapolis.

French Club Honors Seniors

All senior members of Les Parisiennes were honored at a farewell dinner last night at the Wayfarer Inn. Officers for next year were elected at the dinner.

Paula Braun was general chairman of the affair.

Mrs. Jeanette Hady is the sponsor.

Wirt Hosts International Banquet

The annual international banquet of the World Affairs Forum will be 6:30 p.m. Monday at Wirt High School with the Wirt delegation serving as hosts.

Food from Russia, Greece, Germany, France, Norway, Italy, India and Slavic countries will be served at the banquet.

The business meeting of the World

Affairs Forum for the month of May was at the Horace Mann junior library. The topic for the discussion was "Cyprus: Island of Hate."

The history and current governmental situation of Cyprus were discussed. Reports by members were given concerning Turkish and Greek backgrounds. Then the panel suggested possible solutions, including temporary UN administration, 20% - 80% partition of the island and annexation to Greece.

Cheerleaders Begin Practice

The cheerleaders will begin practice next week for summer tryouts, and girls may still sign up in Room 216M for practices.

Miss Angela Hannagan, cheerleader sponsor, called a meeting last week for all girls interested in becoming cheerleaders. The girls who signed up will be required to complete twenty-one hours of practice to participate in the tryouts.

Eleven Upperclassmen Take Advanced Placement Tests

Ten juniors and one senior took advanced placement tests this week. The purpose of those tests is to determine whether or not students who have taken advanced courses are eligible for either college credit, or advanced placement in college courses, or both.

On Monday, Connie Zink, senior, was given the AP English test by Mr. Dale Weingart. Yesterday, juniors Sue Martin, George Finch, Marsha Bradon, Louise Lasayko, Diane Firme, Dave Olson, Kay Vokurka, Nancy Guinee, Leigh Yarnold and Dave Fesko took the history advanced placement test administered by Miss Shirley Bryan and Mr. Dale Weingart.

Pica Club Elects Officers, Purchases New Folding Machine

Electing new officers and purchasing a Martin Yale folding machine highlight Pica Club news.

Ted Kinnis was chosen president of Pica Club. Assisting him will be Ronald Heminger, vice-president; Mike Hulick, secretary-treasurer; and Jerry Konja, sergeant-at-arms.

Bob Jakob was Ted's opponent; Julia Kantroski and write-ins Rich Galka, Bob Peek, and Jack Kirkland were Ronald's opponents; Tom Jadnak opposed Mike; and Bruce Gispanski opposed Jerry.

Folding Machine First Of Its Kind

The new folding machine is the first of its kind that the Martin Yale factory has produced. It is a 14 by 20 folder which also scores and perforates lines. It can fold in six different styles: the letter fold, fan fold, double parallel fold, single fold, French fold and baronial fold. The Pica Club members raised $450 to buy this machine by printing projects for other clubs after school.

At the Senior Activity Day, Larry Marquardt was presented the International Graphic Arts Award and the outstanding senior award in print shop. Ron Kacir and Jim Mikusevich were given excellent achievement awards for their work in print shop.

The Pica Club will participate in the exhibit portion of the Crown Point County Fair this summer.

Varsity Trackmen Beaten By River Forest; Reserves Down River Forest, Lose To Valpo

The cindermen have one win and two defeats in their meets with Valparaiso and River Forest.

The reserve team defeated River Forest, 77-32. First place honors were won by Tom Jadrnak, 120 high hurdles; Jim Sopko, 100 yard dash; Dan Candiano, mile run; Jim Sopko, 220 yard dash; Hank Peiper, pole vault; John Gielnak, high jump; and Larry Slama, broad jump.

Taking second place awards were Dave Ponzo, 120 yard high hurdles; Tom Mandon, 100 yard dash; Larry Slama, 440 yard dash; Tom Jadrnak, 180 yard low hurdles; Don Gatch, shot put; and Dave Ponzo, broad jump.

Receiving a third place award was Hank Pieper in the 220 yard dash. The Hornets placed first in both the 880 yard and mile relays.

The varsity team was defeated by River Forest, 76-33. Allen Eng and John Armato placed first in the mile run and high jump, respectively. Second places were won by Al Madson, mile run; Tom Miller, 440 yard dash; Tom Thomas, shot put; and Dan Peckich, broad jump.

The reserve team was defeated by Valpo 59-50. First places were won by Tom Jadrnak, 120 high hurdles; Gary Heid, 440 yard dash; Tom Jadrnak, 180 yard low hurdles; Jim Rudd, pole vault; John Gielnak, high jump; and Dave Ponzo, high jump.

Pool Tournament Won By Morris, Sieckman

Jeff Morris, senior, and Ken Sieckman, sophomore, have won first and second places in the recent Boys' Club pool tournament.

The tournament took place at the CYO center in Gleen Park. It was a single elimination tournament in which each boy played against a pre-scheduled opponent. The only requirement for entering the tournament was that each boy be a member of Boys' Club. The matches were played after school on Mondays and Wednesdays. The boys were asked to pay twenty-five cents per match. The proceeds from the games were used to buy trophies for the winners.

Jeff Johnson, senior, was chairman of the project and was responsible for scheduling the boys for their matches.

The club also sponsored a trip to White Sox Park in Chicago to see the White Sox play the Kansas City Athletics. Close to eighty boys went by but to the game. Pete Vasil, club president, made arrangements for the trip. Mr. Elmer Molchan, club sponsor, was the chaperone.

Bruce Burch takes another hurdle in his stride during the meet against River Forest

Hornet Batsmen Win Three And Lose Two

Hornet batsmen have defeated Tollestson, 7-4, Horace Mann, 7-0, and Froebel, 9-1, while losing to Emerson, 2-1, and Valpo, 6-5.

Ken Dowdy struck out 15 Blue Raiders in the Tollestson game. Dowdy and Bob Malinich both had doubles while Carely Calahan hit a triple.

While pitching a shut-out against the Horsemen, Dowdy had nine strike outs and gave no bases on balls. Calahan and Bob Warieka had doubles, while Bob Malinich hit a home run.

Bob Kusnierczyk received credit for the Froebel 7-1 win. The Hornets compiled 12 hits to the Blue Devil's three.

Valpo downed the Hornets in the eighth inning. Although Derry Stone, who went all the way, gave up only two earned runs, the teams' five errors made the difference. Stone also pitched the entire game against Emerson, striking out 11 and giving up two runs.

Stephanie Sokol Elected President Of GAA

Stephanie Sokol will serve as president of GAA for the 1964-65 year. Assisting Stephanie will be Nancy Guinee, vice-president; Marsha Little, secretary-treasurer; and Sharyn Wampler, sports co-ordinator.

More than 120 GAA members from Lew Wallace and Horace Mann attended the campout at Camp Tepicon near Winamac, Indiana. Saturday morning the girls from both schools competed against each other for possession of the "Old Oaken Bucket." Once again Wallace was victorious in the games such as Over-the-Waves, Volleyball, and Tug-o-War, to win the bucket for the second consecutive year.

At a dinner Saturday evening the trophies for the sports and outstanding members were presented and the new officers were announced.

Stephanie Sokol received the outstanding junior award and Jo Anne Eliescher received the senior award. Senior plaques went to Jo Ann Eliescher and Judy Pall who have over the four years accumulated the 2400 points necessary to receive this award. Letters went to Lynn Tanner, Betsy Jennings, Sharyn Wampler, Corky Milich, Mary Szabo, Sue Houser, Colleen Bryson, Linda Watkins, Anne Nuzzo, Marilyn Dartz, Judy Feinburg, Jean Jasper, Shiela Quenett, Sylvia Roszkowski and Sandy Taylor.
