Dedication

We dedicate this book to our former principal, Miss Verna Hoke, who passed away on September 25, 1964. Many of us did not fully realize until maturity that her strict - but just - discipline would forever leave a beneficial impression on us. She was dedicated to her work of teaching obedience, proper behavior and overseeing our academic, cultural and re-creative development.

We also wish to remember Mr. Floyd Asher, Assistant Principal during our wonderful years at Lew Wallace, who later became another fine principal. Although these years were economically some of the worst years this country has ever seen, and most of us had nothing of material goods, we were guided, influenced and inspired by our principals, their assistants, and many dedicated teachers, and were left by them a heritage that can never be replaced.

Today we are proud that one of Lew Wallace's graduates is now serving most ably as principal. Mr. William Vorwald graduated from Lew Wallace in 1943; received his A.B. degree from Purdue and his M.A. degree from Northwestern. He participated in football while at Lew Wallace and was a member of the State Championship team in 1941. He married a former classmate, Thelma Shipman, and is the father of three girls and one boy. We feel certain that with 'Bill' at the helm, our Alma Mater is in good hands.
